Israel Exposed . . .

A BANDIT STATE BUILT ON BLOOD

by Martin Wingfield

ISRAEL IS A BANDIT STATE. A bandit state founded on Arab land, secured by the murder of British soldiers and maintained by the persecution of the Palestinian people.

During the month of January the world has seen the true face of Zionism. A cruel, uncaring, intolerant face of a fanaticism that crushes and obliterates anything that gets in its way.

In the first three weeks of this year we have seen Israeli planes, helicopter gunships and gunboats slaughter 21 Palestinian refugees in Lebanon. We have seen a Palestinian woman shot dead by Israeli troops as she hung out her washing, Palestinian children maimed by Israeli bullets and Palestinian babies suffocated to death by tear gas used by Israeli soldiers.

AFFRONT

Palestinian leaders have been deported from their own country, 5 Palestinian journalists have been arrested, rubber bullets have been fired at a UN under-secretary and a British Minister has taken the unpresidented step of openly condemning the Israeli Government.

The state of affairs in Israel today is an affront to civilised society. But unlike the other troublespots of the world there seems little hope of change.

Pressure brought to bear by powerful nations has seen results in these troublespots. The Russians preparing to withdraw from Afghanistan, the South Africans prepared to offer the black population further reforms, Soviet Jews being offered their liberty after years of internment, and concerted efforts from the developed world to help the starving nations of Africa.

But what hope is there for the Palestinian people? Can anyone believe that any outside pressure could alter the intransigence of Israel? Israel ignores every international law when they deport Palestinians. That action violates the 1907 Hague Regulations; the 1945 Charter drawn up after the last war; and the Geneva Convention of 1949. 2000 times have the Israeli Government bulldozed their way through international law and convention, 2000 times have Palestinians been permanently separated from their families and their homes.

In 1967 Israel invaded and occupied the West Bank and Gaza Strip. Today on the West Bank there are 19 Palestinian refugee camps, and on the Gaza Strip 8. In total they house over 1 million Palestinians in conditions described by British Minister of State at the Foreign Office, David Mellor, as "inhuman".

People in those camps are starving, but the concern of Israel at their plight was shown on January 18th when Israeli troops trampled into the mud relief supplies brought in by the United Nations.

So what is the answer to the plight of the Palestinians? What can be done to curtail the actions of the bandit state of Israel which glories on its growth and prosperity achieved on the blood of others?

The State of Israel must be ostracized by civilised society until they allow self-determination for the people of Palestine. All aid must stop, all trade links must be broken and contact at every level must cease.

The tormented mask of the persecuted innocent has at last fallen from the face of Israel. Revealed is the features of a cruel and calculated persecutor. This persecutor must be outcast by the Nations of the world until they can work with their neighbours instead of walking over them.

Britain, whose people have experienced first hand the ruthless nature of Zionism, should lead those Nations in making that stand.

● Brady and Hindley: Cruel Murderers

MRS ANNE West, mother of the youngest of Ian Brady's and Myra Hindley's murder victims, Lesley Anne Downey, has accused the establishment of giving the couple immunity from prosecution in return for their confessions to other murders.

Allan Green, the Director of Public Prosecutions, decided that a new trial with regard to the additional murders 'would not be in the public interest.

A friend of victim Pauline Reade's father, Amos, whose wife lies in a psychiatric hospital - her life destroyed by the loss of her child - said, "Justice must be seen to be done. That is all the Reades want".

STRUNG UP

The National Front believes in the public's right to be protected from butchers such Hindley and Brady. Such evil murderers should have been strung up years ago.

When a court hands down life sentences, it should be for life. When this is an accepted principle, arguments over parole, re-trials etc, and instances of parole-release prisioners repeatedly re-offending will become a thing of the past.

ARCADE OF DEATH

FRUIT MACHINES can drive young addicts to suicide according to the National Council on Gambling.

Children as young as 11 years-old are resorting to theft and extortion to pay for their addiction to these machines housed in Britain's amusement arcades up and down the country.

The report says that the results of this addiction are misery and sometimes death, with up to 60% of pupils in some schools spending their dinner money on these machines.

DRUGS & QUEERS

Amusement arcades are centres for drug-pushing and homosexual procurement. The FLAG believes that stringent measures should be introduced to curtail their influence over British youngsters.

The FLAG recommends:

★ Amusement arcades should only be situated in holiday resorts.

★ They should all be closed out of the holiday season.

★ No person under 18 should be allowed in unless accompanied by an adult.

★ Maximum stakes should be no more than 5p. Winnings no more than £1.00.

Unlike horse or greyhound racing, or even casinos where there is a chance of winning, fruit machines are programmed so that the player must lose. The findings of the NCG report should be heeded. Fruit machines and amusement arcades represent a threat to British youngsters, that threat should be dealt with immediately.

PRAYER TIME PUNCH-UP

MOSLEMS ARMED with spears and wooden staves fought a pitched battle outside an East London mosque.

More than 600 Moslems assembled for the midday prayer service swapped blows as fighting suddenly erupted between the worshippers at the mosque in Whitechapel Road.

Police had to call for reinforcements to stop the brawl and 50 worshippers were removed from the mosque.

SICK SOCIETY

LONDON 'ARTIST' Rick Gibson is using freeze-dried material from aborted babies as ear-rings, ornaments and pieces of so-called art.

What an example of the sick society that exists in Britain today. It is appalling that in the last 20 years three million unborn babies have been butchered and parliament still allows this murder to go on, and now the bodies of those murdered infants are being made into trinkets.

It appears that the fairy tales of 'the Holocaust' of the 1940s are becoming reality in the 1980s.

FROM THE REPUBLIC TO OUR LAND OF MILK & HONEY

IRISH TINKERS squatting on council land in Salford have been ripping off British taxpayers to the tune of millions of pounds.

A massive DHSS fraud has been uncovered by investigators from Salford's New Bailey Steet office resulting in the discovery of 91 fraudulent claims.

The tinkers have been leaving the Irish public at a rate of knots to enjoy a life of Britain's Social Security system. Many have set up camp around the Manchester area living off payments many of which are bumped up by forged birth certificates for non-existent children.

by Ian Anderson

THIS PAPER does not normaily comment on the events in Europe in the 1930's and 1940's because this has no direct relevance to a 1980's British political movement. However recent events in West Germany have put such matters into the sphere of current political comment.

The United Nations Organisation has passed on the names of some 30,000 suspected 'Nazis' from the 1930's and 1940's to the 'Nazi War Crimes Centre' at Ludwigsburg, nr Stuttgart. Now anyone who was likely to be in a position to abuse his responsibility in the Second World War is now going to be at least 70 years old.

ACCURATE

In many countries there is a 'Statute of Limitations' which would prevent such prosecutions, recognising that witnesses are hardly likely to give accurate information about events 40 years ago.

Now the National Front is opposed to all forms of totalitarian regimes and holds no brief for anyone who may have committed atrocities 40 years ago - but just why is it that British establishment politicians regularly approve of such prosecutions while Mrs Thatcher and other leading political figures still smile and welcome people like:

Mikhail Gorbachev - who presides over the USSR where political opponents are locked up in mental hospitals or sent to forced Labour Camps and where whole nations are kept enslaved.

Robert Mugabe - the President of Zimbabwe who was responsible for large scale terrorist murders of Whites and for massacring members of the Matabele tribe.

Shamir & Begin - the Israeli leaders who butchered British soldiers and policemen in Palestine after the last war.

IRA leaders - such as the gunmen who held a conference with Willie Whitelaw in 1972.

Nigerian leaders - not so many years ago a place called Biafra was in the news because thousands of people were dying of starvation while the political leaders of Nigeria prevented food from getting to those who needed it.

LACK OF PRINCIPLES

One of the characteristics of mainstream politicians in Britain today is their total lack of principles - it looks as though the same thing applies to West Germany.

Does it really achieve anything to put 70 year old men and women on trial for crimes they committed over 40 years ago?

EVICT THE CONMAN NOW!

MANCHESTER POLICE should storm the church where an illegal immigrant is claiming 'sanctuary' from being deported.

Viraj Mendis, a 31 year-old student who failed all his exams at a Manchester college, is conning the British authorities. He has claimed that his life is in danger if he was returned to Sri Lanka but his father a wealthy retired tea planter in Columbo described Mendis claim as 'sheer nonsense', saying his son has been taking people for a ride.

In July last year a High Court judge ordered Mendis to be deported. But he is still here - sticking up two fingers to the British people. The time has come to send him home and if the Manchester Police won't do it then the people of Manchester should remove him from the Church of the Ascension in Hulme and dump him with immigration officials at Manchester airport.

● Conman: Mendis the son of a wealthy tea planter in Colombo.

TGWU KEEPS STALIN ALIVE!

IF YOU are a member of the Transport and General Workers Union then you have been helping to keep alive the ailing Communist newspaper 'The Morning Star'.

London 'Region One' of the Union over the last two years has:-

● Taken regular adverts in the paper.

● Asked all branches within the region to donate to the paper's fighting fund.

● Increased from £1,000 to £10,000 the Region's stake in the 'Peoples Press Printing Society' which owns the 'Morning Star'.

STALINIST PAPER

So no matter whether you are a member of the Labour Party, the Conservative Party, or the National Front, if you are a member of this region of the TWGU then you have been helping to keep a hard line Stalinist paper from crashing totally.

But despite this type of union funding the 'Morning Star' continues to decline. If its sales to Communist Eastern Bloc countries ceased then there can be little doubt that the paper would go the same way as the credibility of Marxism - down the pan.

LIVING ON CREDIT

CREDIT DEBTS rose by £173 million in November last year to reach a record level of £22,493 million, Department of Trade figures revealed.

The figures show that the amount owed on hire purchase agreements, credit cards and debts to finance houses, soared by 18% in the first 11 months of 1987.

Like Third World debt, the British people's debt to the banks, finance houses, and moneylenders can never be met. Soon the Shylocks who get their pound of flesh on issuing credits of money that doesn't exist will meet a sticky end. Then, and only then will the British people be free from the shackles of usury.

SPONGING U.S.A STYLE

IF YOU thought Blacks living off the Social Security was just a British problem, you should meet Jacqueline Williams, a Negress living in Washington D.C. Mrs Williams, her second husband Leroy, and their 14 children (No.15 on the way) get $10,000 (about £5,500) a month, from the U.S. Social Security.

This is because the cooking facilities in their government-provided quarters are deemed inadequate to feed a family of 16, so the Williams clan eat all their meals at nearby restaurants - and the American Social Security pay all their bills.

Worse Service

THE POST Office has announced a half year profit of £46 million. More than double the profit on the past six months.

The Mail User's Association revealed that only 72% 0f letters reach their destination on time.

NF CHAIRMAN IN BIRMINGHAM

● Members of Birmingham NF, hopeful about NF success in 1988.

NATIONAL FRONT Chairman Martin Wingfield was the guest speaker at the AGM of Birmingham National Front on Monday 25th January.

A packed meeting heard Mr Wingfield review the state of the National Front as it entered 1988. He said that talks with other Nationalist groups in Yorkshire could lead to Nationalist unity in that county under the banner of the National Front.

He also laid the responsibilty for the future of the NF on the shoulders of its members. "The National Front is Britain's last hope. Our success or failure depends on your commitment and the commitment of NF members in all other branches in the struggle to win back our country".

A collection raised over £80 and the following were elected to serve on the Birmingham Committee for the next 12 months. Ray Redfern - Chairman; John Hill - Organiser; Norman Tomkinson - Treasurer; William Ayto - Secretary and Mark Rea - Elections Officer.

NF IN GREAT SHAPE!

JANUARY HAS seen an explosion of National Front activity as branches up and down the country wasted no time in getting back to work after the New Year festivities.

NF activists in Glasgow were out selling The FLAG at Ibrox Park as Rangers entertained Falkirk.

Newcastle could be found at their daily paper sale in the city centre promoting the January issue of their own Newcastle Patriot, while NF activists in Bridlington took to the streets for a sales drive in the town.

Local Labour Party members in Blackburn disrupted a meeting of Blackburn & Accrington NF but N.W. Regional Organiser, David Riley said the action had only hardened the resolve of his members. Rochdale NF sold out of their quota of The FLAG after a Saturday afternoon papersale in the town.

January was a month of talks concerning Nationalist Unity in Yorkshire. But that didn't get in the way of Leeds branch carrying out their regular papersales in the town centre and at Elland Road. Andrew Brons, Yorkshire Regional Organiser is hopeful that he will be able to annouce the formation of National Front branches in Skipton, Bradford, Hull, Sheffield, Doncaster, and Wakefield after discussions held with other Nationalists in those areas.

Hemel Hempstead have their own postal address now and can be contacted at P.O.Box 274, Hemel Hempstead, Herts HP2 5JW. Leighton Buzzard has been re-organised by John McSweeney and leafletting in St Albans has been rewarded by a number of enquiries.

East London, and South London regions have organised meetings and Croydon are covering extensive areas of Wandsworth and Lambeth with door to door sales.

Brighton held paper sales in Worthing and Eastbourne while Portsmouth sold out of the January issue of The FLAG after a papersale in the shopping precinct.

ORGANISERS' CONFERENCE

THAMES VALLEY Regional Organiser, Tom Mundy, opens the National Front's 1988 Organisers' Conference held in Central London on Saturday 9th January. Delegates representing branches from all over the United Kingdom discussed NF stategy for the coming 12 months. Campaigns organised concerned the distribution of 1 million items of literature, support for British street names and NF speakers representing the party in school debating society functions.

THE TORIES VERSUS THE TRUTH!

MRS EVELYN Lloyd, Conservative Mayor of the Vale of Glamorgan in South Wales, certainly caused a furore just before Christmas when she dared to utter a few home truths on Race.

Arguing that "there is no alternative to apartheid" in South Africa, the Tory Mayor pointed out that "Africans have smaller brains than Whites". Mrs Lloyd quoted the first hand experience of her cousin, a former doctor in Kenya, who had observed this for himself.

For daring to utter this 'racist' remark, Mrs Lloyd was roundly abused by the media. Her Tory colleagues on the Vale of Glamorgan Council ratted on their Mayor in a frenzy of abject cowardice lest they be called "racists" and forced Mrs Lloyd to resign. Demands were made that this outspoken Welsh lady be hurled into jail under the Race Act, which enables the British Government, like the South African, to imprison those who criticise its racial policies or the State ideology on ethnic matters on which it is based.

DIFFERS IN WEIGHT

Yet Glamorgan Vale's outspoken Mayor was only re-iterating an established and easily-checked scientific fact. Negroes do, on average, have smaller brains than Whites, even though their body weight tends to be at least the same.

Dr. J.H.Sequeria, for example, writing in the authoritative British Medical Journal in 1932, before the ban on racial truth was imposed, (March 26th issue p.581), gave the average White brain weight as 1380 grams, and that of Negoes as 1249 grams. In an investigation carried out in 1934 under the auspices of the British Medical Association, Dr H.C. Gordon examined 3,444 Negroes and found an average brain size of 1316 cubic centimetres, 165cc less than the White average brain size. In 1968, the eminent anthropologist Professor Robert Gayre summed up scientific findings that the "average brain of the Negro differs in weight, being 100 grams or thereabouts less than the average of the Caucasoid"(i.e. White).

LOTS OF VOTES

But just for saying what scientists know to be true and what her own medical cousin has seen for himself, Mrs Lloyd was publicly humiliated and disowned by the Tory Party. Blacks may have smaller brains, after all, but they have lots of votes in key marginal constituencies, and that, holding on to power, not telling the truth, is all Tories care about.

If Mrs Lloyd, or anyone else, wants to hear, and tell, the truth about Race and racial differences, she will have to join the National Front. Though they howl us down and lock us up for telling it, the NF will continue to tell the British people the truth. And the truth, in the end, shall prevail, and set our Nation free.

MISSILE THREAT!

● A victim of the IRA lies dead behind the wheel of his car. What mayhem would these murderers cause with missiles?

THE IRA is poised to significantly expand its terrorist activities with the acquisition of a number of Russian-made SA-7 anti-aircraft missiles.

These missiles probably supplied by Libya's Colonel Gaddafi would be particularly effective against British army helicopters or civilian aircraft.

How many British soldiers, policemen and civilians are going to be sacrificed in Northern Ireland before the gloves are taken off and our soldiers are allowed to eradicate the IRA vermin.

2,168 PEOPLE DEAD - IT'S TIME TO CONFRONT THE IRA

TERRORIST MURDERS in Northern Ireland in 1987 were up 50% on 1986. Similar increases in the number of explosions and shootings were recorded.

Since the troubles began in 1969 a total of 2,168 people have now been killed by terrorists.

Mrs Thatcher has now been Prime Minister for over eight years and her Government pushed through the Anglo-Irish Agreement designed to 'increase security' in Ulster. Last years figures show what a disaster that policy has been. How many more deaths before she realises she is killing innocent people.

There is only one way to meet IRA terrorism and that is to shoot the terrorists. If this had been done in 1969 then 2,168 people might still be alive.

● Ulster buries its dead. The one way to meet the IRA is to shoot the terrorists.

PRINCE BACKS FRONT ON COMMITMENT TO BRITAIN IN SPACE

ECHOING a motion overwhelmingly passed by delegates at the National Front's 1987 Party Conference, the Prince of Wales has supported the revolutionary British HOTOL spaceplane, threatened by Government short-sightedness.

Giving this year's Stock Exchange lecture, Prince Charles criticised the Government's failure to support HOTOL. The British Aerospace/Rolls-Royce design would be the first spacecraft able to take off, fly through the air and land like an ordinary aircraft and could carry civilian passengers from London to Sydney, Australia, in just 45 minutes. But the Government has refused vital funds needed to build it.

In words the NF could not better, the Heir to the Throne warned "We are in danger of losing another, typically British and brilliantly simple, aerospace concept to foreign interests."

The Prince went on to point out that HOTOL was only the latest in a long line of brilliant British inventions frittered away to foreigners. He revealed that a recent Japanese survey had found that over half the most important inventions to emerge since the last War were British. But Britain rarely got any benefit from them.

● Prince Charles: 'We are losing a British concept to foreign interests'.

His Royal Highness cited the computer as "the most staggering" British invention which was lost to foreigners - British scientists at Manchester University and elsewhere invented the modern digital computer, yet today over 60% of the world computer market is in the hands of American-based multinational IBM and most of the rest belongs to other US multinationals like Unisys and to the Japanese. Sir Barnes Wallis's swing-wing aircraft was designed by the brilliant British boffin but actually built by the Americans. Now HOTOL looks set to go the same way.

The Prince of Wales, despite some strange multiracialist aberrations, has hit the nail right of the head this time. Britain has the most brilliant scientific and engineering brains in the World. But timid, penny-pinching Governments and plutocrats blinded by short-sighted greed time and again waste world-beating ideas and let foreigners steal the fruits of the unique British genius. Today, the National Front is the only party committed to backing HOTOL, the only party committed to Britain in Space, and the only party with the vision and determination to stop the rot and harness British brains for the British people.

The Celts by Nora Chadwick - £4.60.
The rise and spread of the Celts in around the eighth century B.C. including a description of their art, their institutions and their religion all laid out in a very readable format.

Restoration of Property by Hilaire Belloc - £2.70.
Capitalism and Communism, far from being alternative political systems are shown to be both centralist, while only a distributist system can be seen as a genuine alternative.

Race, Intelligence and Education - 70p.
This shows the significance of Race and tears apart the arguments of the multi-racialists exposing them simply as shallow prejudices.

Let Britain Live! - £1.30.
The 1983 General Election manifesto of the National Front.
This is the most comprehensive description of the policies of the NF. If you are ever asked a question about NF policies which you feel uncertain in answering then this is a must.

Akenfield by Ronald Blythe - £4.10.
A description of a Suffolk village told through the stories of the inhabitants, an old soldier, a farm labourer, a district nurse - as they tell their stories the village comes to life.

Nationalist Doctrine by Joe Pearce - £1.30
This book expounds the three principles which together form the basis of Nationalism as a political philosophy: Social Justice, Racial Preservation and National Freedom.

Rulers of Russia by Rev. Denis Fahey - £2.50.
The USSR is probably the greatest single force in world politics today. Yet the people who rule Russia are largely unknown to the West. This book looks at those who formed the power elite after the Revolution.

Folk Heroes of Britain by C.Knightly - £5.75.
The true story of some of the most romantic and colourful figures in British history. Caratacus, Boadicea, King Alfred, Hereward the Wake - all brought to life.

WHITE WORKERS' POWER: THE TIME HAS COME

SINCE the Industrial Revolution, British industry has been plagued by the battle between bosses and workers. The bosses, once rich factory owners and now City sharks and yuppies administering trust funds and holding companies, own almost all industry. The workers create the wealth these bosses enjoy, but get only such fruits of their labours as they can squeeze out of them by strikes. And if the strikers ruin the company, why should they care? It's not theirs anyway. The rest of the profits of British workers' labours line the pockets of non-worker share-holder parasites or are invested abroad, building up foreign industry and putting British workers on the dole.

This inefficient and unfair system has split the nation on class lines and led to endless disputes which crippled British industry. Politics is split on the same lines between Tories and Labour. If the unions get the upper hand, strikes and inflation wrack the land. If the bosses get on top, as now, millions rot on the dole. Meanwhile Britain's economic decline goes on. Clearly something must be done. But what?

LESS POWER

"Socialism" say the Reds. In theory, this means the workers control industry. In reality, it means the State does. Instead of lots of little bosses exploiting the workers, there is one big boss. This only makes the exploitation more efficient. Unions are turned into powerless Civil Service departments, and strikers are shot for "economic sabotage". Under Marxism, the workers have even less power than under Capitalism. No wonder big Capitalists like FIAT and Ford like setting up factories in Communist countries where the workers are worse paid and better controlled. Trotskyites too want State Capitalism, one big State boss. In reality, Communism is the highest form of Capitalism, taking the Capitalist trend towards concentrating more and more economic power into fewer and fewer hands to its logical conclusion: one firm, the State, owns everything, and the Party bosses rule the State. This isn't an alternative, and as any Polish or Russian worker would tell you if they let him, it doesn't work.

"The Corporate State", the Fascists said in the Thirties, and Harold Wilson did in the Seventies. Under this system, all the workers are organised into one union per industry, and the unions are linked in something like the TUC. The bosses are also organised into something like the CBI. Then the Government sits in a smoke-filled room with the workers' and bosses' leaders and over beer and sandwiches, or sherry and canapes, they run the country. The Fascists in Italy never really did this - it was just a cover for a dictatorship. But Wilson and Callaghan did from 1974-79, and it ended in rampant inflation, the global plutocrat International Monetary Fund taking over the economy, and the strikes of the Winter of Discontent. Why? Because you don't solve the conflict between workers and bosses by organising each side into one big gang and then sitting back while the gangs slug it out.

The workers share amongst themselves all the profits of their labours

So what is the answer? Instead of replacing a lot of little bosses with one big boss, or organising bosses and workers so they can confront one another more effectively, you eliminate the conflict altogether by making the workers and the bosses the same people. This, Distributism, is the NF's third way, our radical alternative to Capitalism and Communism. Under Distributism, industry is owned and controlled directly by the workers. In big concerns, through workers' co-operatives. In small ones, as family businesses or partnerships. There is no longer a separate boss or shareholder class. The workers share among themselves all the profits of their labour that they don't plough back into the business. The expropriators are expropriated, and the exploitation of man by man, directly and through a State, ends. The workers in bigger business elect and can vote out their own Board, which appoints managers who are worker-shareholders just like everybody else. As the workers are the bosses, decide their own pay and conditions and work directly to benefit themselves, strikes are pointless. Free market competition between workers' co-ops and small businesses ensures supply matches demand and quality is maintained. Everybody belongs to a single working class, and class war is dead. Obvious, isn't it? And, where it's been tried, in firms like the John Lewis Partnership shop chain and in the Mondragon area of Spain, it really works. White Workers' Power is an idea whose time has come. Join the NF, and make the dream real.

The Secret Service

by Ian Anderson

THE real issues over the publication of Spycatcher have been lost behind the amusement at Margaret Thatcher's difficult position and embarrassment at how Britain is being made to look ridiculous in the eyes of the world.

The real problem over the publication of Spycatcher and other similar books is two sided. On one side the question must be asked: 'Does the book give away secrets which either jeopardise Britain's security or the safety of other British agents.' On the other side, if it is true that there is or was a senior officer of MI6 who was also a Russian agent and that there was a cover-up to protect him, then certainly there should be an investigation into this.

If we look at this from Peter Wright's point of view, he is convinced that there was a senior member of MI6 spying for the Russians. This would be regarded as ludicrous if it were not for such characters as Burgess, Maclean, Philby and Blunt, and there have been other writers who have claimed that Sir Roger Hollis was a spy from the beginning.

However if there is any element of truth in Peter Wright's suspicions then the obvious question is whether the publication of his book is the right way of going about exposing this. Over the years since the Burgess affair there have been several investigations into Britain's secret services and all of them have exonerated Sir Roger Hollis.

Quite simply it would seem that no one can believe that Britain's intelligence services were so incompetent as to harbour known and outrageous homosexuals who were spying for the Russians, consequently the idea was born that there must be someone protecting these Soviet agents.

So what has the publication of Spycatcher achieved. It has not led to any new investigation because it presents no new evidence not available to previous investigations. It has been claimed that its contents have seriously affected the safety of British agents. It has certainly made public the workings of some aspects of the security services. On this basis it would seem that its publication was a vindictive act of an ex-MI6 officer who had been shabbily treated by his employers.

Its publication has also shown up yet another element of the continuing imcompetence of our intelligence services in failing to close such a loophole. Further, it has given rise to inevitable copycat publishing, another former MI6 officer, Anthony Cavendish, has privately published his memoirs which would seem to jeopardise an attempt by the security forces in Northern Ireland to enlist the help of Catholic priests to persuade IRA members to turn into 'supergrasses'.

At the end of all this one or two things emerge clearly:-

★ The publication of such books may be prejudicial to the safety of security operations - and therefore must not be allowed. Senior officers must agree to such an arrangement at the beginning of their service.

★ The Conservative Party has been shown to be totally incompetent in ensuring the security of our intelligence services by not closing this loophole. The Labour Party has been shown to be putting advantage before the security of the nation.

★ The officers of MI6 must have an independent body to which they can talk of any suspicions of internal treachery.

★ Any member of the secret services found to be working for a foreign power should be subject to the death penalty - to deter anyone else from following suit.

★ Homosexuality must be a bar to working in the security services.

The secret services of Britain are a vital element of our defences, their agents must be fully protected and their operations must be efficient and secure. The old parties have, as usual, shown their total inability to be responsible for our nation's security - the sooner they are replaced the better.

Destroyed Because They Were Female!

ASIAN WOMEN are abusing the current abortion laws to get rid of unwanted female babies.

Using ante-natal checks to determine the baby's sex, they then put pressure on doctors to abort the pregnancy if its is a girl.

Abortion itself is a crime against humanity, but selective abortion - the murder of a child simply because its parents would forfeit a 'wedding dowry" - is beyond description.

Those who would perpetrate this atrocity, none too surprisingly, are aliens to our British culture and our respect for life.

Those doctors committing these selective murders should be struck off - those Asians involved should be deported - along with their alien culture.

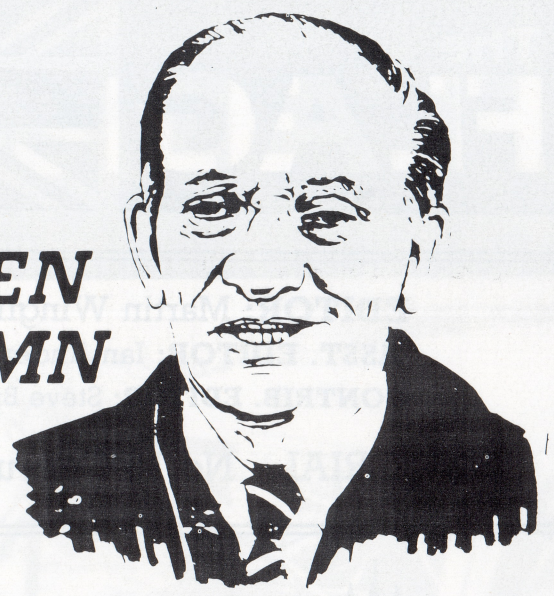
THE TED BUDDEN COLUMN



A Yen for Milton Keynes

WHEN MADAM Thatcher routed the wets in her Cabinet, she set the seal on her triumph by demoting leading wet Peter Walker to the post of Secretary of State for Wales, though I can't imagine what the Welsh have ever done to her to make her think that they deserve him.

Unfortunately, Walker's humiliation has in no way persuaded him to desist from making internationalist statements that seem designed to aggravate me no end. As proof of impending prosperity for Wales under the Walkerian aegis, he has made the proud boast that Britain will be getting the lion's share of all Japanese investment in Europe this year. By God, there's glory for you Dai!

It is certainly true that the Japs are keen on buying up British industry since we now have the low wage industrial economy that qualifies us admirably as the genuine Western coolies who will give their goods free entry into Europe by the back door.

I've never liked Britain's membership of the EEC, but now I have some sympathy with our partners in that misbegotten organisation who believe that we are colluding with the Japs to undermine Europe's industry. Our quota of Jap lolly is not so much the lion's share as the Judas goat's.

Another attraction for the Japs is the fact that they know just how to get the most out of British workers. They gained great experience of that with British prisoners of war on the Burma railway. Of course, on that occasion they were ably assisted by Sikh prison camp guards who were famed for their brutality. Still, they could hire Sikhs as foremen, I suppose, and they wouldn't have to go to India to recruit them - there's a ready-made pool in Southall.

Perhaps the most vomit-worthy advertisement around at present is the one by the Milton Keynes Development Agency. This depicts two executive types waiting anxiously for the appearance of a supercilious Japanese industrialist. When he arrives, they fawn on him. They smirk ingratiatingly. When he signs the contract, they sigh with relief. That is Britain today.

Stranger than What?

BRITAIN HAS recently been honoured by a visit by Chaim Herzog, the esteemed President of Israel. Nothing remarkable about that. Possibly he merely wished to get acquainted with all those numerous dual citizens in places like, well, Finchley.

What is remarkable, though, is the report at that time that Madam Thatcher intended to question Herzog about Israeli arms sales to Iran.

Now correct me if I'm wrong, but I was under the impression that Iran was the sworn enemy of Israel. Hasn't the loopy old Ayatollah declared that he intends to eradicate the State of Israel? Are not the Islamic zealots who kidnap Europeans and Americans in order to put pressure on Israel said to be under the control of Iran? Is not Israel's chief stooge, the United States, spending billions on maintaining a vast fleet in the Gulf area in order to contain the Iranian threat to the stability of the Middle East.

Yet when Reagan made his contemptible arms for hostages deal with the Iranians, it was the Israelis who acted as go-betweens. It was they who fixed the amount of the ransom. The arms were loaded into Israeli aircraft and flown to the airport at Tehran, capital of Iran, sworn enemy of Israel.

Iran's implacable hatred of America is an indisputable fact - I think. America unquestioningly makes annual subventions of billions of dollars to keep the Israeli economy afloat and gives Israel the most modern military equipment. Israel, in turn, supplies arms to Iran which, presumably, they deploy to menace American sailors.

You'll excuse me if I'm a little confused. It is said that truth is stranger than fiction. But which is it that we in the "free world" are being fed?

Trick Cyclist

ALTHOUGH I instinctively feel sympathy for anyone who has been a victim of IRA thugs, I must say that in the case of Norman Tebbit M.P., that sympathy was placed under great strain by his seemingly callous advice to the unemployed to "Get on your bikes".

This presumably meant that people from areas of 20% unemployment should migrate to areas of only 10% unemployment, such as the "affluent South-East" where jobs are indeed available - with wages that would enable the worker to sleep in a cardboard box and live on a diet of eggs and baked beans.

But then Norman is not only a dedicated cyclist but, as a former airline pilot, is a high flier in the wages league and probably has no conception of how we mere groundlings live.

Now that Norman has given up his post as Chairman of the Conservative Party and retired to the back benches, many of us feared that he would simply vegetate and that we would no longer see the demon cyclist pounding the pedals as he raced to new heights of achievement.

We needn't have worried. Norman has got on his bike to such good effect that he has just won the most coveted championship of all - the Tour des Boardrooms. You will now find Norman's bike leaning against the boardroom wall in no less than five famous companies; Bamford Excavators, British Telecom, Blue Arrow, Sears and BET.

Surely it cannot be that this hot gospeller of the hard way has lodged his bike in the guards van while he nestles in the First Class compartment of the favourite mode of transport of political trick cyclists through the ages - the good old gravy train?

SOLD OUT TO A BLACK DICTATOR!

ZIMBABWE - FORMERLY Rhodesia - is to become a totalitarian Marxist one-party state, and that's official. Standing in front of a gigantic Nuremberg-style banner proclaiming "One Nation, One Party, One Leader" newly installed 'Executive President' and former terrorist and murderer Comrade Robert Mugabe told his cheering, North Korean-trained Communist stormtropers at a New Year rally that the last vestiges of democratic opposition would be eradicated by 1990.

Mugabe's Black battalions bayed their approval as their Leader proclaimed his intention of tearing up what remains of the 1979 Constitution, drafted by British Tory Minister Lord Soames, and making himself dictator of a one-party state.

The only reaction of British Tories to this inevitable end-result of Thatcher's betrayal of Western Civilisation to Communism, in flagrant defiance of promises spelled out in the Conservative 1979 Election Manifesto, was a grovelling editorial praising the Marxist Mugabe and his Red rabble of rapists and child-killers which appeared in the Tory Daily Telegraph on New Year's Eve.

It is worth remembering that all the media-created "world opinion" hoo ha and sanctions against the 'Rhodesian rebel regime' between 1965 and 1979 were supposedly because Rhodesia denied 'democratic rights' to the 'Black Majority'. But no-one ever denied that the quarter-million Whites, at least, enjoyed a democratic system in which opposition parties were allowed. As was public criticism of the Government.

● Mugabe: The man with the vote

In Zimbabwe it is even illegal and punishable by imprisonment to make jokes about the name of Mugabe's predecessor as President, a Mr. Banana. The White Government, incidentally, refused to give Blacks the vote on the grounds that they were incapable of understanding democracy and would just vote away their new rights to a Black dictator. As they have, of course.

Now that Zimbabwe has been 'liberated', the Blacks still won't have any say in who governs them, and nor will the Whites. Instead of 250,000 people being able to choose democratically how the country is run, one man, Robert Mugabe, will be absolute dictator. ('One man-One vote', and he's the man with the vote!)

So much for democratic majority rule. Democracy for some has been replaced by tyranny over all. But the tyrant is Black, and as far as Thatcher, the United Nations and the rest are concerned, that is the whole point.

CURRY'S MAKE YOU SICK

CURRYS THE High Street electrical goods shop have launched a range of goods with the Japanese-sounding name Matsui.

It's sick that a British store should promote a Japanese sounding name. It's sicker that many of these goods are imports from Italy and Yugoslavia rather than British-made goods.

But sickest of all is that the goods are named after a Japanese war criminal General Iwone Matsui who was responsible for butchering British servicemen in Burma.

PORK COSTS LIVES?

A WOMENS' cancer clinic had to be closed after the surgeon in charge walked out.

Muslim consultant surgeon, Idris Khan stormed out of the clinic leaving women patients unattended after finding pork dishes on the menu in the canteen.

Khan said he was upset when he found ham, quiche, sausages and gammon on the menu. As a Muslim it is against his religion to eat pork.

BIRTH-RATE & MARRIAGE

BRITAIN HAS a higher birth-rate than all other EEC countries except France and the Republic of Ireland.

The proportion of births out of wedlock was 21% the highest figure recorded since statistics were first collected in 1938 and treble the rate in 1961.

Any ideas for the reason for this?

MEETING WITH MURDERERS

THE LEADER of Ulster's Social Democratic and Labour Party has held talks with the IRA.

On Monday 11th January, John Hume, head of the Catholic SDLP met with Gerry Adams the public relations strategistof the IRA.

After the meeting Mr. Hume said he believed the IRA was moving towards a more political line and away from bombings and murder.

The FLAG believes that a person should be judged by the company he keeps!

BACK TO THE DRAWING BOARD

LAST JANUARY Warwickshire Police lauched a campaign to recruit Black and Asian Officers.

They gave talks at schools and community centres, distributed leaflets in Urdu, Bujerati and Punjabi. Open days and meetings with community leaders were held and a small fortune was spent on advertising.

The FLAG is pleased to announce that after all these efforts Warwickshire Police have achieved success. They have managed to recruit a member of the ethnic minorities. His acceptance brings the total of immigrant policemen in the county's force to 7, out of a force of over 1000 strong!

ANC COME UNSTUCK

A CONCERT to raise money for the African National Congress ended up losing £900 after the hall where it was to be held had its doors glued up.

Hemel Hempstead Anti-Aparthied Group blamed the local NF for the incident.

BBC BOWS TO THE BUTCHERS OF BURMA

FORTY-FIVE years ago the Japanese were butchering British servicemen in the jungles of Burma.

Their torture of British soldiers captured during the last months of the war was cruelty beyond belief.

Today the horrors of Burma are apparently forgotten. the Japanese are now in permanent residence in Britain, so much so that one might be confused as to who actually won the war.

Japanese goods have flooded British markets putting British workers on the dole.

Japanese cars are actually made in Britain inflicting horrendous damage to the British car industry.

Britain's financial markets now talk in the currency of Japan, the Yen, forcing banks in the City to employ Japanese clerks and sack their British counterparts.

Now even the BBC is bowing to the Japs. From this month Radio 4 will be launching a Japanese language programme called Get by in Japanese. These will be a series of six programmes complete with back-up books and tapes to give the British people a working knowledge of Japanese.

I wonder what the families of those Britons butchered in Burma will make of all this?

LOSING TOUCH WITH BRITISH PEOPLE

The Church talks to terrorists

So you put a tyre around their necks, fill it with petrol, watch it burn them to death and it's called necklacing - Well that is fascinating Mr. Tambo.

PARENTS DON'T WANT ANY BLACKS

LADY HOOPER, Under Secretary of State at the Department of Education admitted that a substantial proportion of parents don't want any Blacks at their childrens' school.

Speaking on the BBC's Look North programme she said "If we are offering freedom of choice to parents, we must allow that choice to operate. If it ends up with a segregated system then so be it".

Confirming that racially segregated schooling is what is wanted by most parents a survey conducted by the Harris Organisation for London Weekend Television showed that in the Home Counties 52% of parents favoured racially segregated schools.

WHITE DRAWBACK

A NURSERY school job applicant was awarded £1,800 after being rejected because he was White.

Gary Marshall had been short-listed for the £7,179 a year job at Tottenham Green nursery in London but he was told not to turn up for the final interview when he admitted to Haringey Council that he was White.

CUTTING TO THE BONE

But Thatcher says there's No Crisis

LAST year over 1,400 hospital beds were lost in London alone, over the past four years a total of over 8,000 hospital beds were lost in London.

In Hillingdon hospital over 50% of the patients have been waiting more than one year for an operation. In Tower Hamlets over 80% of urgent cases have to wait more than one month for an operation.

The same picture is reflected all over Britain, yet Mrs Thatcher says there is no crisis in the health service. On Monday 12th January Mr John Hughes, Labour MP for Coventry North East was suspended from the House of Commons for holding up their business to protest about the cuts in our health service. While we have little sympathy with the Labour Party - what we want to know is: "What are the other 634 MP's doing about these cuts?"

AT RISK

The vast majority of people in Britain rely on the national health service for their medical treatment, in some cases the efficiency of that service can mean life or death. Mrs Thatcher's refusal to allow proper funding of the health service is putting every single person in this country at risk, except of course for those of her supporters who are rich enough to opt out of the national health service and can pay for private medical care.

● The efficiency of the Health Service can decide between life and death.

WHO FUNDS THE LOONIES

GANGS OF Rastafarians, feminist loonies and bizarre Black religious sects are to receive tens of thousands of pounds of public money during 1988.

★ £250,000 is to go to the Afro-Caribbean Theatre and Performing Arts Training Centre in London's Notting Hill.

★ £42,050 to the lesbian feminist Positive Image Womans' Development and Nursery Project based in Handsworth, Birmingham.

★ £23,000 to the Rastafarian Tree of Life Group also based in Handsworth.

★ £5,000 to the crackpot West Indian Church of God Prophecy in Chapeltown, Leeds for a feasibility study.

But all this cash isn't coming from the 'Loony Left'. It's coming from the Tory Government. Tory minister for the 'Inner Cities', Kenneth Clarke, anounced the handouts as part of the Governments £16 million handout of taxpayers' money to Britain's underdeveloped areas, much of it to weird and wonderful bodies more usually linked with 'Red Ken' and Bernie Grant by the Tory Press.

HYPOCRITES

So next time you hear some Tory MP huffing and puffing about 'Labour Loonies' wasting public money on bizarre schemes, remember the Tories are just as bad themselves. In fact they're worse because they are liars and hypocrites as well.

But of course the National Front itself will give money to every Rastafarian and coloured immigrant living in Britain without exception. It will be the price of their boat tickets home!

Turban Trouble

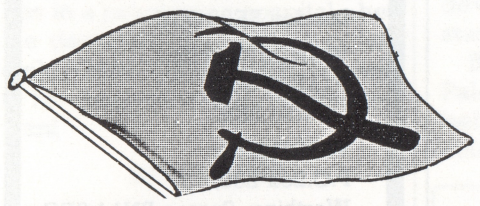
THE FAMOUS Names chocolate factory in Greenbank, Bristol has been branded racist after they denied a job to a Sikh who refused to remove his turban.

Kalmaljeet Singh was told wearing his turban would break the company's hygene policy.

Sikh extremists have set up an action group and are picketing the factory. They intend to take the company to an industrial tribunal claiming racial discrimination.

RACE RIOT

TWENTY FIVE arrests were made after street battles between Whites and Asians in Gillingham Kent.



CORRUPTION AND DEBT IS DESTROYING ROMANIA

IN THE 1970's President Ceaucescu of Romania launched a crash industrialisation programme. He achieved considerable growth, but only by borrowing money from Western banks. However the interest on these loans has been increasingly crippling the economy in exactly the same way as with Third World countries.

President Ceaucescu recently decided to repay these debts now standing at £5,000 million. As a result of trying to eliminate this burden, vital footstuffs have been exported along with everything else rather than being made available to ordinary Romanians.

On top of this problem caused by the combination of western banks with the communist regime, the Romanians are saddled with another problem. President Ceaucescu is unbelievably corrupt even by Communist standards.

His wife Elena is deputy prime minister, his alcoholic son Nicu is a regional ruler, his brother is in charge of defence, his son-in-law is in charge of state planning and his daughter Zoia is in charge of science and technology, thirty five other close relatives are in top government posts.

As a consequence of the inevitable chaos food has been rationed since the early 1980's and milk and meat have now almost completely disappeared, while long queues develop for other basic necessities. Despite having an enormous and ruthless secret service, the DIE, there has been widespread unrest including demonstrations in various industrial centres.

The combination of usurious practice by Western banks and the imposition of rigid Marxist doctrine through an all powerful autocracy has left the ordinary Romanians poor, hungry and angry. We wish them luck in their fight for their rights.

FLAG SPORT

IT'S UNFAIR

Frank McEvoy of Barrow-in-Furness complains to The FLAG.

"I enjoyed your article on Lincoln City in the last issue of The FLAG but must take issue with your assertion that all other clubs banished from the Football League have sunk without trace.

Barrow F.C. are enjoying one of their best seasons for many years. We are at present 5th in the Northern Premier League and unbeaten since November. On New Year's Day we convincingly beat Workington (another former league club) at their Borough Park ground 4-0.

Barrow received a raw deal when they were voted out of the league in 1972, after a recount, to make way for Hereford. Just 18 months earlier they had topped the third division but a disastrous spell saw them sink to the foot of the fourth division in successive seasons.

It has been a grim existence at Holker Street during the last 15 years but now things are definitely looking brighter. Next year could see us in the GM Conference League and September 1989, who knows, back in the fourth division.

BACK IN TRAINING

BOXING FANS will be pleased to hear that Barry McGuigan resumed training in London last month.

According to his new manager Frank Warren he could be back in the ring in April.

BELL PAYS THE TOLL FOR MEDIA ATTENTION

BRITISH SKIER, Martin Bell recorded the fastest time in practice for the Men's Downhill in Bad Kleinkirchheim, Austria on Wednesday 13th January.

The very next day, again in practice, he clocked the second fastest time beating the likes of Zubriggen, Mueller and Waismeir.

On race day the following Saturday Martin Bell came 36th in a field of over 70, a performance that drew hoots of ridicule and derision from the British Press.

"Bell Fails Again" were the headlines as the papers without exception attacked the young skier for failing to perform in the race as he had done in practice.

EXCELLING

The FLAG* believes the under-funded, ill-prepared British Ski team are performing miracles this year. From a Nation, that by its climate limits training opportunities, the British boys are excelling.

All they need is time, and encouragement, and the likes of Bell, his brother Graham, Smith and Duncan will be ranked amongst the world's best.

● Martin Bell: a British skier achieving results.

SUSSEX GOES FOR HOME GROWN PLAYERS

SUSSEX COUNTY Cricket Club has announced a bold new training project aimed at developing the best under-16 cricketers. The scheme is being sponsored by Komfort Systems to the tune of £18,000 and it is their intention to help produce a 1990's county side consisting of only Sussex born players.

The FLAG wholeheartedly supports such a scheme - although we wonder what the Commission for Racial Equality makes of it?

GETTING THEIR ACT TOGETHER

BRITAIN'S RUGBY Union authorities appear to the starting off 1988 in exactly the right way.

The English authorities are introducing a new schools' tournament, it's sponsored by the Daily Mail and is for under 15's to avoid clashes with 'O' level studies.

After a series of knock-out rounds the final will be held at Twickenham as a curtain raiser for the County Championship final on 9th April. The only other similar competition in rugby-playing countries is the highly successful Northern Ireland schools' competition which has been running for many years and attracts large crowds. How about a game between the two winners?

INDEPENDENCE

It also makes a pleasant change to hear of a sport which, instead of running to the Government for money, has decided to raise its own cash. The RFU is currently examining the possibility of running a pools scheme which could provide a substantial income.

An inside source has told The FLAG that one reason why senior officers of the RFU are keen to secure its independence from the Government's financial strings is because there is a substantial body of opinion in senior rugby circles which is now in favour of resuming fixtures against South African teams.

Such a decision would bring down the full anger of either a Conservative or Labour government and rugby officials are anxious to ensure that they cannot be blackmailed by a government over their funding.

Front Gives Smith a Warning over Race Inquiry

JOHN SMITH, the Chairman of the Sports Council, has announced he is to hold an investigation into racism into British sport, in consultation with the Commission for Racial Equality.

Now John Smith is also chairman of Liverpool Football Club and it was this same John Smith who announced after the Brussels Heysel Stadium disaster that the trouble which started the riot was caused by National Front members. After a full investigation by the Police they decided that John Smith had been lying and that "there was no evidence of National Front involvement".

Because of swift action by the National Front most newspapers realised that John Smith had simply been trying to shift the blame for his own incompetence in failing to ensure adequate safety precautions at the ground.

Well it looks as if John Smith, having been given one bloody nose by the NF is trying to get his own back. Well the National Front has already written to John Smith telling him that the NF demands the right to reply to any and all allegations that may be made about us in this report.

Mr Smith may not like it, but it is a fact of life that most British fans are racialists. They prefer to watch real British men and women representing our country rather than West Indians, Africans, Indians or Pakistanis.

This is not caused by the National Front but the laws of nature, and neither Mr Smith or the Commission for Racial Equality are able to change it
